

Louisville Evening Express.

OLD SERIES--VOL. XXV.

LOUISVILLE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 3, 1869.

NEW SERIES--VOL. I, NO. 177.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.
By Western Union Telegraph Lines for Nov.
3, 9 A. M.

CITIES.	WIND.	TH'R.	WEATHER.
Louisville,....	S E	65	Clear.
Memphis,....	W	50	Clear.
Nashville,....	S E	45	Hazy.
New York,....	S W	45	Clear.
Boston,....	S	45	Clear.
Portland,....	N W	45	Cloudy.
Halifax,....	N	45	Cloudy.
Port Royal,....	S	45	Cloudy.
Chicago,....	S W	45	Cloudy.
Cincinnati,....	S	45	Cloudy.
Cleveland,....	S W	45	Cloudy.
Pittsburg,....	S W	45	Cloudy.
Houston,....	S W	65	Hazy.
Vienna,....	N E	45	Cloudy.
Washington,....	B	45	Foggy.
Boston Harbor,....	N E	50	Clear.
Mobile,....	N E	50	Clear.
Chatanooga,....	S E	50	Clear.
Jack's Point,....	N W	50	Clear.
Philadelphia,....	N W	50	Cloudy.
Augusta,....	None	75	Hazy.
Key West,....	N E	75	Clear.
Macau,....	N E	60	Cloudy.
Charleston,....	N	60	Clear.

THE CITY.

Funeral of the Hon. C. A. Wickliffe.
Hon. C. A. Wickliffe will be buried with Masonic honors at Bardstown, on Friday the 5th inst., at 11 a. m. All Masons are invited to join in the ceremonies. Masons will meet at Duvall Lodge rooms, in Bardstown, at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

Horse Stolen.

Monday night last Mr. Fred. Metz, living on the Shellyville pike, six or seven miles from town, lost a very large, fine bay horse, nine or ten years old, which he valued at one hundred and fifty dollars. Some rascally thief had entered his premises and gone off on horseback.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Last night about half-past 9 o'clock, Officers Koch and Becker arrested Thomas Brannon, who was gloriously how-come-yous. Thomas was raising "old Harry" generally, and in consequence of his boisterous conduct he was required to pay a fine of $5 and give his bond in $100 for 40 days, by Judge Craig.

Lost Out for the Curs.

A last drunken man attempted to drive a horse across the railroad at the head of Jefferson Street, immediately in front of the down-cumming train this morning. His horse got the worse of it, the locomotive cutting off a hoof and crippling the animal in a manner that will likely cause its death. The man was badly scolded but not much hurt.

The Danville Case.

Arrival of the Red Stockings.
The celebrated Red Stocking Club, of Cincinnati, arrived by the Short Line train to-day. The game between the Red Stockings and the Kentucky Club will be called at 2 o'clock. A spirited contest may be expected. We hear that the Cincinnati club will play another game to-morrow.

Worrell Sisters.

The audience last evening was quite an improvement over that one of Monday evening, proving emphatically that these charming young actresses are winning their way surely to a great and well-deserved popularity with our amusement-going people. To-night we have another change of programme--the burlesque of "Black Eyed Susan" and the farce of the "Quiet Family." This is a fine bill, and should draw a crowded house.

New Music.

D. P. Fuld's the popular music publisher, No. 70 Main street, has lately issued quite a number of new pieces from his press. Among these are "Chime the Bells," by Fritz Spindler; "Won't You Tell Me Why, Robin?" abridged, words and music by Clerihew; "The Wee Bird," a ballad, words by W. Jordan, music by George Linley; "Home Sick," a fantasia, by Albert Dunnington; "My Heart Is Over the Sea," a ballad, by Clarke.

A Friend of the Law Advises.

The premonition of a jaygon prevalent in the City Court during the examination of cases ought to be abolished by such stringent rules strictly enforced, as would secure justice enough for an attorney to hear himself when he strains his lungs bellowing at a witness. We ask for order, and the contrast will forcibly remind us of the truth of Pope's aphorism, that "Order is Heaven's first law." Let it be done.

Bad Boys.

Thomas Boyle, John Devine and G. Taylor were presented before the City Court this morning, on a charge of disorderly conduct. These boys, under the leadership of Taylor, are in the habit of creating disorder. Yesterday afternoon they took a large ash box from in front of a store on Main street, between Sixth and Seventh. They took a dry goods box, and with them were making off, when they were arrested by officers Harlon and Rice. On account of their age, all three being quite young, they were discharged with an admonition from the court.

Louisville Opera House.

Like a good picture which grows upon your appreciation the more you look at it, so does the acting of Mrs. Bowers grow upon the public taste. Each evening finds an increase in her audience, and each evening sends that audience home determined to return again, and again, till they have been enabled to gather up and feel to its full value the thousand points she makes--and this not in dress only, but in her strict, yet easy, portraiture of the characters she personates. Her performances last night made hosts of friends and admirers. To-night we are to have a new four act drama, entitled, "Snare, or What Can't Money do?" by Edmund Falconer, one of the most successful dramatists of the day. Mrs. Bowers will appear as Clara Melville, and Mr. McCollum as Henry Melville.

Odds and Ends.

The celebrated Red Stocking Base Ball Club, of Cincinnati, after the match at Cedar Hill this afternoon, will to-night visit the Opera House on a special invitation.

Tom Boyle, John Devine and George Taylor, three little boys, were arrested last night for tearing up boxes on the sidewalk.

The net profits of the Galt House for the month of October, over and above all expenses, and after paying interest on the bonds issued, amounted to the very handsome figures of fourteen thousand dollars.

So much for Col. J. S. Johnson.

Boden's new safety-valve for steam-boilers is all the talk among engineers and engine-builders. Mr. B. has an independent fortune in store.

At the shooting match of the New Albany Rifle Club, Monday, Mrs. M. A. Welker took the fifth prize.

Justice Connell has been seriously sick since Saturday last, at which time he had an attack of something like vertigo. He was better this morning.

The fire yesterday afternoon was in the residence of Charlie Ward--our Charlie. His furniture was injured somewhat by heat removal; damage to the building was put to about $500.

The skating rink was the scene of great enjoyment last evening, by young and old.

Monday, at Belmont Furnace, Mr. John Fisher was accidentally shot with his own pistol, in the hands of a green boy, who was handling it without any idea of the danger. Fortunately, the ball, though striking him in the breast, caused only a slight wound, which will soon heal.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company announce that they will receive coal in less than car-load quantities on Saturdays only. They have made ship arrangements with connecting roads for one day in the week, and this arrangement will prevent loss from leakage and damage of car loads.

The committee on Mississippi levees, appointed by the Commercial Convention in this city, held a meeting in New Orleans last Saturday and resolved to organize a joint stock company as the best means of building the levees needed.

New Light on the Byron Question.

The London Quarterly Review, for October, has an article on the relations of Lord Byron to his wife and sister, in which his innocence of the charges made in Mrs. Stowe's article is asserted, and the attempt made to show that the wife and sister were on the best of terms at the time the separation of the married pair took place and afterward. To support this view, five letters, from Lady Byron to Mrs. Leigh, are quoted, which have a strong negative force, in showing that if Lady Byron discovered the guilt of her husband and sister-in-law, it must have been with a falsehood.

Alderman E. W. M. Mackey proceeded promptly to follow him, when he was interrupted by several of the Aldermen and brought back to his seat. He then continued to denounce the action of the Mayor, and while he was speaking, Alderman T. J. Mackey, who tripped from rage, returned into the room and approached the speaker. As he entered the room his pistol belt could be seen outside of his vest, which gave rise to the presumption that he had armed himself. He approached Alderman E. W. M. Mackey, and observing very excitedly, "I will chastise the insolent puppy when he leaves this room," and left the room, dragging his nephew to follow him.

Alderman E. W. M. Mackey proceeded to follow him, when he was interrupted by several of the Aldermen and brought back to his seat. He then continued to denounce the action of the Mayor, and while he was speaking, Alderman T. J. Mackey, who tripped from rage, returned into the room and approached the speaker. As he entered the room his pistol belt could be seen outside of his vest, which gave rise to the presumption that he had armed himself. He approached Alderman E. W. M. Mackey, and observing very excitedly, "I will chastise the insolent puppy when he leaves this room," and left the room, dragging his nephew to follow him.

The Danville Case.

Lee Wyley was presented before Judge Craig this morning. There were two charges pending against him. One of obtaining two horses under false pretences from Thomas F. Barber. Wyley purchased the horses and gave a draft for them on the house of Wyley & Co., Atlanta, Georgia. He directed that they be shipped to him at Atlanta. The draft, however, was protested, the house of Wyley & Co. not being known, and the horses were not sent.

Wyley could not be held on this charge, as the horses had never been in his possession; and, on motion of the Prosecuting Attorney, he was discharged as to this case.

The other charge was of stealing an overcoat from Thomas F. Barber.

Wyley had been at Barber's for some two or three days negotiating for the purchase of the horses. Barber lives a little distance from Danville, Ky., and on the morning that Wyley left his house he sent him to Danville in a buggy.

Addressed on the cover "To the Hon. Mrs. Leigh."

Kirby Mallory, January 16, 1816, (the day after she left London.)

My dearest A.---It is my great comfort that you are in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 23, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

My dearest Angusta---Shall I still be your sister? I must resign my rights to be so considered. But I don't think that will make any difference in the kindness I have so uniformly experienced from you.

Kirby Mallory, February 3, 1816.

My dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

Kirby Mallory.

January 25, 1816.

Dearest A.---I know you feel for me as I do for you, and, perhaps I am better understood than I think. You have been, ever since I knew you, my best comforter, and will so remain, unless you grow tired of me in P. C. dally.

DAILY EXPRESS.

LOUISVILLE.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1869.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

Public Interest in the State Elections.

Tennessee State Bank Decision.

Gen. Belknap's First Appearance in Any Cabinet.

Partial Failure of Virginia Tobacco Crop.

THE ELECTIONS YESTERDAY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Public interest here to-day has generally centered in the State elections, especially in New York, wherein Greeley's position on the Radical ticket has given it unusual interest. Dispatches are battened to-night in the local newspaper offices as well as in those representing distant journals.

THE NEW YORK BANKING INTEREST.

The New York national banking interest, which has been urging Secretary Boutwell to grant permission for the currency to be placed on deposit with the Treasury to secure bank circulation, has called his attention to the fact that there are now deposit here, under the old order, twenty-two millions of these bonds.

STATE BANK OF TENNESSEE.

The decision in the Supreme Court in the case of the State Bank of Tennessee's notes makes the loan prior to the war receivable for all taxes to the State. The question did not arise as to the validity of the issue during the war, and that is what was consequently not decided. This will, however, be a distinction in the between the men of Confederate and by a subsequent power and the voluntary issue of the bank of a state is not of the rebellion. In the former case the currency bank formed by irresponsible men, the Supreme Court has decided that contractors will be held responsible for the value of the currency in United States currency. In the latter the court will not probably sustain the liability of the state or that the state is bound by the acts of its agents in all of the rebellion.

CHARTER DECLINING GOING TO BALTIMORE.

The President to-day informed a Baltimore delegation that he had abandoned his intention of visiting their city to-morrow to attend the meeting of the Medical Institute Fair.

THE CLARKE CABINET MEETING.

to-day resulted in nothing important. Only three members were present—Fisher, Belknap and a well-known absent. The new Secretary of War, however, made his first appearance in a Cabinet meeting.

PERIODICAL BUILDINGS.

The Engineering Architect of Public Buildings has forwarded his annual report the building of granite of the long east front of the Treasury to-day, and the removal of the eight-light law, which, he says, increases the cost of the public structures now building about one-third.

VALUABLE TRADE SEIZED.

Several whisky and tobacco seizures in Maryland and Indiana are reported to-day on the ground of undue franking stamp.

LAND PATENTS.

Two hundred and forty-four patents have been prepared at the office for Indiana land in Kansas, purchased by various companies under the direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The aggregate area covered by the patents is 2,227,727 acres.

INDIANA TERRITORY.

A gentleman in the interior of Virginia who has traveled extensively in that state writes that the tobacco crop will reach only about two-thirds of the average yield, but that the prices will be high enough to equalize in value what will be lost in quantity.

COMPLIMENT TO GEN. BELKNAP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A large number of citizens assembled to-night at the residence of Col. Dayton, where Gen. Belknap is temporarily located, to associate him with that State, addressed him in behalf of the citizens of Iowa, expressing their gratification at his appointment as Secretary of War, and complimenting him on his distinguished services during the war. Gen. Belknap replied, expressing his gratification at the compliment, and the view of the people for the development and steadfast adherence and support of the Union and Republican party, and pledging himself to so administer the affairs of the War Department as to command the approval of the country.

NEW YORK.

Result of the Election in the City and State.

Defeat of the Judiciary Article of the new Constitution.

Criminal Justice on the Money Line.

NEW YORK.

The total vote for Secretary of State, in the city, is 116,682.

Newton, 19,002; Sigel, (Rep.) 36,750. A large number of German Democrats have voted for him, but the Democratic loss in the city is made up by gains in the State. The State has gone Democratic by about 10,000 majority. In this city the vote in favor of the 13th article of the new constitution could not be had. The Republicans are intensely excited, one of their leaders, C. J. Spencer, being charged with having burned the tickets. Hence there will probably be an almost certain defeat of the only article of the new constitution upon which the Radical

A series of crimes of a frightful character occurred in the middle of the night of Monday at a settlement called Bomby Hook, on the Jersey shore, between the Palisades, and opposite Yonkers. A man named Dickey, residing in a house at about 9 o'clock. He was awakened about 1 o'clock by some slight noise, and then discovered that his wife was absent from the room. Seizing a revolver, he ran down stairs, and there, as he allows, discovered Mrs. Dickey with a man named Collin Callahan in a sickening position on the floor. He immediately shot Collahan dead and also fired at his wife, wounding her. It is thought, mortally. Dickey then made his escape from the village, but was subsequently captured in a boat on the Hudson river. An immediate investigation into the horrible circumstances will be made.

PITTSBURG.

Crushed to Death—A Wool Speculation.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 2.—A. Brinkley, aged seventeen, employed at the Steubenville rail-road, was crushed to death in this city, was caught between the bushes while coupling cars yesterday morning. He was so crushed that he died last evening.

C. M. & B. & S. Donthet, wool dealers of Butler county, have been arrested on the charge of having sold a large quantity of wool on a pretended shipment of a large quantity of wool. Another Philadelphia house also charges them with obtaining $5,000 in precisely the same manner.

The Memphis Races.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Bufford's stables, including Crossland, Versailles, Coquette, and the Green, are to be sold to-day. Fully sixty well known horses will be here at the inauguration. The past stoke will be contested by Corsican, Crossland, Belvoir, Carrie Aterton, Dick Jackson, and others.

The Virginia State Fair.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 2.—The State fair opened to-day with a large attendance. A telegram was received from President Grant this morning, "regretting that his engagements precluded his attendance."

CUBA.

Troops for the Front.

HAVANA, Nov. 2.—The 6th Battalion Mobilized Volunteers have gone to the seat of war.

FOREIGN.

ENGLAND.

GRAIN TRADE OF THE UNITED STATES.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Times to-day comments on the rapid increase in the imports of wheat from the United States. The most interesting question, it says, is the extent to which it can be kept up in competition with Russia and Central Europe when railways in the second are fully developed. The great question for the United States to consider in this connection are the reduction in freights and other charges and the enlargement of communication with the Mississippi Valley.

EGYPT.

FOUNDING THE SUEZ CANAL.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from Alexandria states that M. Pauline has surveyed the Suez canal, and finds the water twenty feet deep in the shallowest part.

EGYPTIAN DETERMINES TO GO THROUGH.

The Captain of the Imperial yacht Aigle has informed the Empress that he cannot make the passage through the canal, his boat drawing too much water. The Empress insists that new soundings be made, and, if the Aigle be not able to go through, a lighter vessel be procured, as she is determined to go through the canal.

RUSSIA.

GOV. CURTIN ADDRESSES THE CZAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—Hon. A. G. Curtin, American Minister, in addressing the Czar, expressed his pleasure at being able to repeat the sentiments of admiration and esteem entertained by the Government of the United States towards the Czar, and his hopes and desires for a continuation of those feelings, and for the well being of the present Government of Russia, which has been made glorious by its wisdom, firmness, and justice.

FRANCE.

THE PRUSSIAN AMBASSADOR.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—The newly appointed Ambassador to Prussia arrived to-day.

A SOSPICIO'S CROWN.

A great crowd of people have assembled at Mont Matre Cemetery. The police are on hand and, for the time being, are apparently not needed. The city is tranquil.

IRELAND.

ARCHBISHOP CULLEN'S PASTORAL.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—Archbishop Cullen, in a pastoral just issued, exhorts all members of societies similar to the Fenian organization to abandon them. He refers to the evils sustained by Spain and Italy through the actions of secret societies, and says members of such organizations will incur the penalty of excommunication, and cannot participate in the Eucharist just published.

GERMANY.

BLAKE BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

FRANKFORT-ON-THE-MAIN, Nov. 2.—Quite a heavy shock of an earthquake was felt last evening throughout Germany, particularly in Darmstadt, Wiesbaden, Mayence and Frankfurt.

ALBRIA.

END OF THE INFLUCTION.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—Advises from Austria announce that the capitulation of the insurgents is hourly expected.

SPAIN.

CABINET RECONSTRUCTION.

MADRID, Nov. 2.—The Cabinet has been put reconstructed. Marti has been appointed Foreign Secretary and Figaro Minister of Finance.

NASHVILLE.

DEFEAT OF THE COOPER INELIGIBILITY RESOLUTION—A Johnson and Anti-Johnson Party—A. J. S. Prestige Gone—Official Pap.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 2.—The resolution introduced in the House yesterday providing for the election of U. S. Senator, on the alleged ground of Cooper's ineligibility, was tabled to-day by 35 to 33.

It is reported on good authority that Johnson will certainly be elected delegate to the Constitutional Convention from the Greenup county.

Two hundred and forty-four patents have been prepared at the office for Indiana land in Kansas, purchased by various companies under the direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The aggregate area covered by the patents is 2,227,727 acres.

INDIANA TERRITORY.

A gentleman in the interior of Virginia who has traveled extensively in that state writes that the tobacco crop will reach only about two-thirds of the average yield, but that the prices will be high enough to equalize in value what will be lost in quantity.

COMPLIMENT TO GEN. BELKNAP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A large number of citizens assembled to-night at the residence of Col. Dayton, where Gen. Belknap is temporarily located, to associate him with that State, addressed him in behalf of the citizens of Iowa, expressing their gratification at his appointment as Secretary of War, and complimenting him on his distinguished services during the war. Gen. Belknap replied, expressing his gratification at the compliment, and the view of the people for the development and steadfast adherence and support of the Union and Republican party, and pledging himself to so administer the affairs of the War Department as to command the approval of the country.

NEW YORK.

Result of the Election in the City and State.

Defeat of the Judiciary Article of the new Constitution.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A special from St. Paul says that Hon. N. P. Langford has arrived from Helena, Montana. He comes at the request of the Legislature to meet with General Hancock in regard to the protection of the people of Montana from outrages by hostile Indians, who are preparing to drive the whites from the country. The people demand a speedy increase of mounted troops, and also to raise volunteers to protect the frontier.

The election to-day has been decided in a very quiet manner. The vote is not large. At this hour, 6 o'clock p.m., the election of the citizens' ticket by a large majority is very generally conceded.

Mrs. Mattie Thompson, aged about twenty years, who was recently employed in a boarding house of Mrs. Belknap, on Madison street, for some time past, suddenly disappeared Sunday night. From letters she left and utterances which she made, it is believed she has committed suicide, as no trace of her can be discovered.

PITTSBURG.

Protection for Montana—Municipal Election—Citizens' Ticket Elects.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A special from St. Paul says that Hon. N. P. Langford has arrived from Helena, Montana. He comes at the request of the Legislature to meet with General Hancock in regard to the protection of the people of Montana from outrages by hostile Indians, who are preparing to drive the whites from the country. The people demand a speedy increase of mounted troops, and also to raise volunteers to protect the frontier.

The election to-day has been decided in a very quiet manner. The vote is not large. At this hour, 6 o'clock p.m., the election of the citizens' ticket by a large majority is very generally conceded.

Mrs. Mattie Thompson, aged about twenty years, who was recently employed in a boarding house of Mrs. Belknap, on Madison street, for some time past, suddenly disappeared Sunday night. From letters she left and utterances which she made, it is believed she has committed suicide, as no trace of her can be discovered.

PITTSBURG.

Crushed to Death—A Wool Speculation.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 2.—A. Brinkley, aged seventeen, employed at the Steubenville rail-road, was crushed to death in this city, was caught between the bushes while coupling cars yesterday morning. He was so crushed that he died last evening.

C. M. & B. & S. Donthet, wool dealers of Butler county, have been arrested on the charge of having sold a large quantity of wool on a pretended shipment of a large quantity of wool. Another Philadelphia house also charges them with obtaining $5,000 in precisely the same manner.

The Memphis Races.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Bufford's stables, including Crossland, Versailles, Coquette, and the Green, are to be sold to-day. Fully sixty well known horses will be here at the inauguration. The past stoke will be contested by Corsican, Crossland, Belvoir, Carrie Aterton, Dick Jackson, and others.

CUBA.

Troops for the Front.

HAVANA, Nov. 2.—The 6th Battalion Mobilized Volunteers have gone to the seat of war.

THE ELECTIONS.

RESULTS FROM NEW YORK, MASSACHUSETTS, NEW JERSEY, WISCONSIN, MINNESOTA, MARYLAND, ILLINOIS, ETC.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATIC BY A LARGE MAJORITY.

MASSACHUSETTS ABOUT DIVIDED ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

HORACE GREELEY LARGELY AHEAD OF HIS TICKET.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Times to-day comments on the rapid increase in the imports of wheat from the United States. The most interesting question, it says, is the extent to which it can be kept up in competition with Russia and Central Europe when railways in the second are fully developed. The great question for the United States to consider in this connection are the reduction in freights and other charges and the enlargement of communication with the Mississippi Valley.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The Times to-day comments on the rapid increase in the imports of wheat from the United States. The most interesting question, it says, is the extent to which it can be kept up in competition with Russia and Central Europe when railways in the second are fully developed. The great question for the United States to consider in this connection are the reduction in freights and other charges and the enlargement of communication with the Mississippi Valley.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—The Times to-day comments on the rapid increase in the imports of wheat from the United States. The most interesting question, it says, is the extent to which it can be kept up in competition with Russia and Central Europe when railways in the second are fully developed. The great question for the United States to consider in this connection are the reduction in freights and other charges and the enlargement of communication with the Mississippi Valley.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Times to-day comments on the rapid increase in the imports of wheat from the United States. The most interesting question, it says, is the extent to which it can be kept up in competition with Russia and Central Europe when railways in the second are fully developed. The great question for the United States to consider in this connection are the reduction in freights and other charges and the enlargement of

